++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mild and mostly dry, with sunny spells.

Today:
A cloudy start in the north and west, perhaps misty around some coasts but bright conditions elsewhere, with spells of hazy sunshine in the afternoon. Mostly dry and feeling warm in any afternoon sunshine. Turning breezy later. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Staying mostly dry through the evening as some clear spells form. Low cloud moves in overnight, bringing some patchy drizzle and light rain to eastern areas later. Breezy. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Friday:
A gloomy start, with low cloud and some drizzle. Staying mostly cloudy but turning drier by mid-afternoon. Winds ease through the day. Warmest near the coast but cool for many. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Generally cloudy through the outlook, with occasional brighter spells. A slight risk of light showers or drizzle, but mostly dry. Light winds but turning breezy later on Monday.
